

1 January 2008

Library Notice for DODL and off-campus students of Jamia Hamdard

This is for the information of students admitted to various courses run through the off-campus centers of Jamia Hamdard as well as the study centers of DODL that the books & journals consultation/reference facilities are open for them without any distinction.

For consulting the books/journals they will have to produce their Identity cards.

The consultation and photocopying facilities will be available through all circulations counters located in the HMS Central Library.

The students will strictly follow the rule and regulations set by the University Library Authorities.

Univ. Librarian
HMS Central Library